WHEREAS, the Florida Legislature found that Florida faces increasing competition from other states and other countries for the location and retention of private enterprises that that there is a need to enhance and expand economic activity in the municipalities of this state by attracting and retaining manufacturing development, business enterprise management, and other activities conducive to economic promotion, in order to provide a stronger, more balanced, and stable economy in the state of Florida, to enhance and preserve purchasing power and employment opportunities for the residents of this state, and to improve the welfare and competitive position of the state of Florida; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature declared that it is necessary and in the public interest to facilitate the growth and creation of business enterprises in the municipalities of the state of Florida, and

WHEREAS, §166.021(9), Florida Statutes authorizes the City to expend public funds to attract and retain business enterprises; and

WHEREAS, the Florida Legislature has stated that the use of public funds toward the achievement of such economic development goals constitutes a public purpose; and

WHEREAS, it constitutes a public purpose to expend public funds for economic development activities, including, but not limited to, developing or improving local infrastructure, and making grants to private enterprises for the expansion of businesses existing in the City of Groveland or the attraction of new businesses to the City of Groveland; and

WHEREAS, the City has determined that it is in the best interests of the City of Groveland to implement a variety of economic incentives to assist private enterprises in the City to expand their businesses and to attract new businesses to the City; and

WHEREAS, the City has also determined that it is in the best interest of the City of Groveland to broaden its business and industrial tax base which further benefits all residents in the City by better distributing the burden of taxes.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GROVELAND, FLORIDA AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1: Recitals. The above recitals are true and correct and, by this reference, are hereby incorporated into and made an integral part of this ordinance by setting forth the authority and purpose of this ordinance.

Section 2: Economic Development and Business Incentives.

That Chapter 25 of the Code of Ordinances of the City of Groveland, is hereby created to read:

CHAPTER 25 – ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND BUSINESS INCENTIVES

Sec. 1-1. Definitions. As used in this Chapter, the following definitions shall apply:

Building permit fees means those fees charged by the City of Groveland for construction, erection modification, repair and demolition activities within the City which are governed under the Florida Building Code and charged pursuant to Florida Statutes and as adopted by the City in resolution.

Sec. 1-2. General authority and administration.

- a. The City Council and the CRA of the City of Groveland may each budget funds for economic development and incentive purposes. The award of funds is contingent upon available funding.
- b. The City Council of the City of Groveland may approve owners, tenants, businesses or industries to receive funds under this chapter as it deems necessary to fulfill the purposes of this chapter.
- c. The CRA of the City of Groveland and the City Council, when applicable, may approve owners, tenants, businesses or industries to receive funds under this chapter as it deems necessary to fulfill the purposes of this chapter.
- d. Applications for economic development and incentive funds can be obtained from the City and submitted to the community development department unless otherwise directed by the city manager. After confirmation by the city manager or designee that such application meets the requirements of this chapter, the city manager or designee shall schedule final approval of the award before the City Council, and if appropriate, before the CRA. An applicant may apply for any or all of the incentives set forth in this chapter. An applicant applies by submitting a letter to the City detailing the nature of its business, the specific incentive(s) the applicant is seeking, how it meets the criteria for the incentive(s), and explaining why the City Council and if applicable, the CRA should grant economic development and business incentives. The decision on any application will be determined by the City Council and if applicable, the CRA, on a case by case basis in its/their sole discretion.

Sec. 1-3. Incentives.

The following incentives are authorized:

a. New Buildings or Building Expansions:

- i. Any Commercial or Industrial use business, as provided in Chapter 153 of the Code of Ordinances of the City of Groveland, that constructs a new building, or expands its building a minimum of 25% or 4,000 square feet, whichever is less, is eligible to apply for and receive if awarded, a credit, waiver or rebate of up to 100% of the building permit fee retained by the City of Groveland and not paid to a third party which are charged for the new building or expansion. If a credit is granted the credit will be applied towards development application fees (excluding any portion paid for hard costs such as recording, notifications, advertising). The City of Groveland, may, in its sole discretion, agree to pay on the applicant's behalf that portion of a building permit fee referenced in this subsection that is paid to a third-party and not retained by the City.
- ii. For purposes of this incentive, the minimum expansion required must be for the purpose of creating additional space for business purposes including but not limited to office space, retail space, manufacturing space, and does not include space for bathrooms, break rooms, closets, unless a minor part of the expansion as determined by the City in its sole discretion. Any rebate will be paid by the City within 30 days after the City issues a certificate of occupancy for the new or expanded building.
- iii. Any Commercial or Industrial use business, as provided in Chapter 153 of the Code of Ordinances of the City of Groveland, that expands its building a minimum of 25% or 4,000 square feet, whichever is less, is eligible to apply for and receive, if awarded, a credit, waiver or rebate up to 100% of the building permit fee, retained by the City of Groveland and not paid to a third party, which are charged for internal or exterior renovations to the existing building, not the expansion. If a credit is granted, the credit will be applied towards development application fees (excluding any portion paid for hard costs such as recording, notifications, advertising). The City of Groveland, may, in its sole discretion, agree to pay on the applicant's behalf that portion of a building permit fee referenced in this subsection that is paid to a third-party and not retained by the City. Any rebate will be paid by the City within 30 days after the City issues a certificate of occupancy for the expanded building.

- iv. Any Commercial or Industrial use business, as provided in Chapter 153 of the Code of Ordinances of the City of Groveland, that constructs a new building, or expands its building a minimum of 25% or 4,000 square feet, whichever is less, is eligible to apply for and receive if awarded, an extension from issuance of building permit to issuance of certificate of occupancy to pay any water, wastewater and administrative impact fees due the City of Groveland.
